THE MALACHI HOUSE Chapel Windows

The rays of sunrise/sunset project life beyond our comprehension. They represent the comfort of heaven; the lines go up to infinity.

The iris, or sword lily, represents the sorrow of the Virgin at the suffering of Jesus, demonstrating both beauty and pain.

The prisms throw rainbows into the room, the symbol of promise for lives filled with the mystery of suffering. They are like magic—sometimes there and sometimes not. They interact between heaven and earth, with nature and God.

The river represents life; it takes us places that we sometimes don't want to go. Life's hardships are shown through the twisted turns that eventually take us back to the rising sun, the Resurrection.

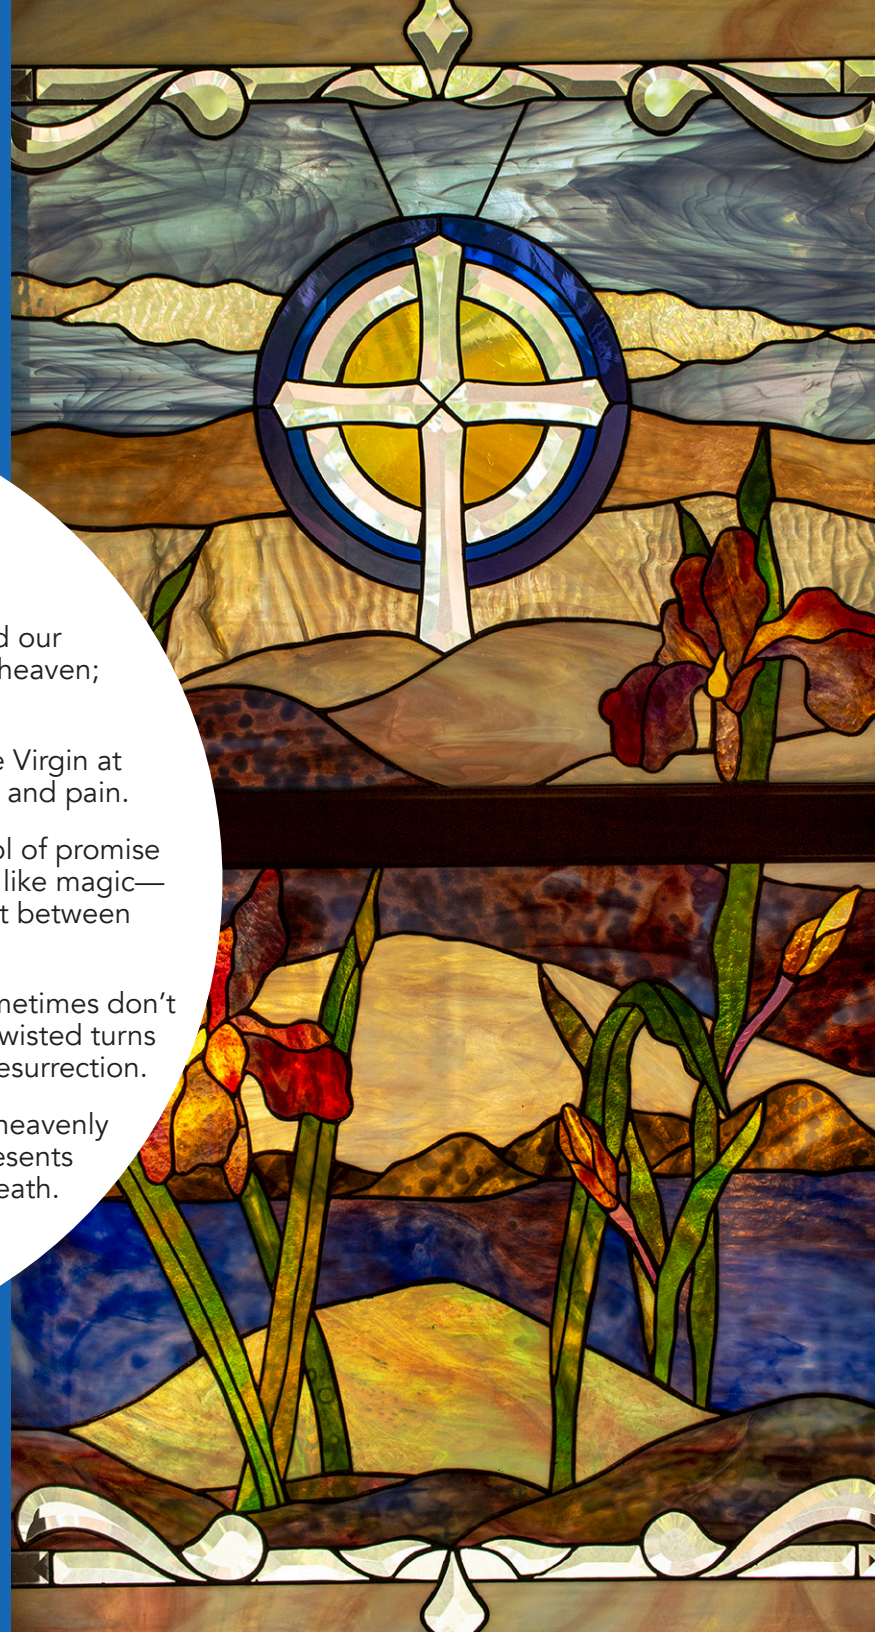

The colors—blue, purple and violet—represent heavenly truth, imperial power and sorrow. Green represents the triumph of spring over winter, life over death.

The golden sun is representative of healing, and the white spaces reflect innocence.

A LIFE OF FAITH AND COMPASSION: Honoring Jeannie's Journey

Born in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, Jeannie moved to Northeast Ohio with her family when she was four years old. As one of seven children, she learned early the importance of caring for others and relying on family through both joyful and difficult times.

At 22, she married her late husband, Alan, and together they built a loving life, raising two sons, Michael and Brian. Family has always been at the heart of Jeannie's life. She devoted herself to caring for her loved ones, creating a home filled with kindness, laughter, and faith. Her compassion for others shaped everything she did, including her professional life.

When Jeannie's illness began to progress, she realized she needed additional support and care. Despite her strong faith and independence, she found herself in need of not just medical help but comfort, companionship, and a place where she could truly feel at peace. That is when she came to Malachi House in January 2025.

From her first day, Jeannie says she felt embraced with compassion and respect. "They make you feel like you are wanted, not a burden," she shares. "That means everything when you can't do as much for yourself anymore."

Her bright, colorful room reflects her spirit and creativity. She spends her quiet moments sewing and crocheting tie blankets to give as gifts. Her Catholic faith continues to guide her, and she finds solace in prayer and gratitude in every act of kindness from staff and volunteers.

"Malachi House is my happy place," Jeannie says softly. "Here, I feel safe. I feel loved."

Her message to others is simple yet profound: "Trust God, and trust the people you meet here. They bring you peace and teach you how to live at the end of your life."

Jeannie's strength, grace, and faith continue to touch everyone who walks through her door. Through the care and community of Malachi House, she has found not only comfort but deep, enduring peace.

A LETTER FROM THE BOARD CHAIR AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Enduring Spirit of Malachi House

Nearly four decades ago, the vision for Malachi House began with Father Paul Hritz and Catherine “Kaki” O’Neill. Rooted in faith, dignity, and compassion, their dream was to create a home where those at the end of life could be surrounded by love, free of charge, and without fear of being alone. Their legacy continues to guide everything we do at Malachi House. Each day, our dedicated staff, volunteers, hospice teams, Board of Directors, Associate Board, and generous donors carry that vision forward, ensuring that every resident is cared for with the same spirit of compassion that inspired our founders.

Malachi House remains in a strong and stable position financially. However, like many organizations, we are navigating the challenges of inflation and the rising costs of daily operations and staffing. Our leadership team continues to manage these pressures with diligence and foresight to ensure that our mission remains strong and sustainable. In addition, we are closely monitoring the effects of recently passed federal legislation that may impact the nonprofit sector. While uncertainty lies ahead, our independence from government funding gives us the flexibility to continue serving residents in our unique model, made possible only through the steadfast generosity of our supporters.

We invite you to visit Malachi House to see this mission in action. Step inside our home and you’ll find warmth, love, and community, the very heart of what Father Paul and Kaki envisioned so many years ago.

RECOGNIZING EXCELLENCE in Leadership

The 2025 Malachi House Annual Meeting was a special occasion that brought together our Board of Directors, staff, volunteers, and donors in celebration of our shared mission and collective accomplishments. Each year, this gathering provides an opportunity to reflect on the continued strength of our community and the compassion that sustains our work.

We extend our sincere appreciation to Westwood Country Club for their gracious hospitality and partnership in hosting this year's meeting.

A highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of the 2025 Catherine "Kaki" O'Neill Leadership Award to John J. Schriener. John's steady leadership, unwavering dedication, and years of heartfelt commitment have made a lasting impact on Malachi House. His service reflects the spirit of compassion and integrity that defines our mission, and it was a privilege to recognize his meaningful contributions to our organization.

A Final Resting Place: Lake View Cemetery

Our mission at Malachi House is to serve our residents who are terminally ill. We believe that mission doesn't end with one's final breath.

Malachi House residents may choose to be interred at the historic and beautiful Lake View Cemetery at the Malachi House Vault. Their cremated ashes are held in Wade Chapel at the Cemetery until our annual Celebration of Life, at which time the ashes will be interred in our burial vault on lot 104. This option for interment will remove the emotional and financial burden for residents and/or their families and provides scenic grounds for their final resting place.

This past summer, we came together for a meaningful gathering to honor the lives of our cherished residents and to unveil our new monument at Lake View Cemetery. The monument stands as a lasting tribute—a peaceful place where loved ones can visit, reflect, and remember those who have called Malachi House home.

We are deeply grateful to Board Member John Sullivan, whose thoughtful vision and dedicated guidance brought this project to life. Thanks to his leadership and the generosity of our community partners, this beautiful addition was made possible at no additional cost to our residents or their families.

A heartfelt thank you to Katharine Goss, President and CEO of Lake View Cemetery, Andrew Bales, Alicia Armstrong, and the entire Lake View team for their support, and to Monica Johns and the team at Johns Carabelli & Semerano Cemetery Memorials & Flowers for the beautiful monument.

Our dedicated staff and caregivers at Malachi House

They are the heartbeat of our organization, faithfully living out our mission each day by providing comfort and care to our residents. Their steadfast dedication is the foundation of our organization, and we sincerely value the compassionate service they provide.

They wholeheartedly understand and embrace the essence of our mission, focusing on serving the terminally ill. Their daily actions consistently reflect genuine empathy and a heartfelt commitment to our cause.

WE ARE SO GRATEFUL FOR THE DEDICATION OF OUR VOLUNTEERS.

Their enthusiasm, joy and countless smiles create a welcoming and warm atmosphere for our residents and for guests at Malachi House.

The commitment of our volunteers infuses life into our mission.

Thank you, Malachi House
Volunteers!

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

Before Malachi House came to be, St. Therese was watching over it. In 1987, a friend of Rev. Fr. Paul Hritz unexpectedly donated a monetary gift to be used for helping the needy. The donor had no idea that Fr. Paul had just completed a Novena to St. Therese to help him proceed with his vision of helping the homeless who were terminally ill. At that time, there was no funding available for his idea - just faith in prayer to a special saint. However, that unexpected donation planted a seed for the formation of Malachi House.

That same year, four row houses on Clinton Avenue were also donated to St. Malachi Parish. Work began immediately to renovate the homes, but Malachi House still needed parking to satisfy the zoning laws. After serious negotiations, Malachi House purchased the house behind the row homes to provide a parking area. The back yard, covered with snow on a cold February day, was about to be cleared for the parking lot. To unbelieving eyes, a rose bush was discovered with a single, beautiful blooming red rose. St. Therese, also known as "The Little Flower", had left her sign of the rose, blessing our work to continue with her favor and our confidence.

Story after story flowed from this occurrence, beginning with prayers almost always answered by the patron saint of Malachi House. A statue of St. Therese was placed in the home to oversee the renovation that was being accomplished by hundreds of volunteers from all walks of life. During that time, roses would appear in unexpected places at unexpected times as the work progressed. St. Therese's wish was to carry out the mission of, "not great deeds but great love" to those most in need. Her wish was being fulfilled by the ongoing faith in God's command to love one another, as told to believers by this great saint.

~ Lovingly remembered and recounted by Malachi House Co-founder, Catherine "Kaki" O'Neill

Every year since that first sign from St. Therese in 1987, Malachi House celebrates her Feast Day. In October of 2025, we were thrilled to gather together for this celebration. Malachi House was adorned with beautiful red roses and filled with the laughter and joy of our community. We look forward to many more celebrations of St. Therese to come.
